Third Sunday of Easter

May 4, 2014

And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

Luke 24: 15-16

And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"

Luke 24: 30-32

WOMEN'S GUILD MAY MEETING ACCOMMODATES FULL AGENDA!

May's Women's Guild meeting is scheduled for May 13 at noon. This meeting will not just be the regular monthly routine. We are meeting at Smoky Oak Taproom at 1234 Camp Road on James Island in honor of those members to be installed and those with May birthdays! Come prepared to have fun!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Acts 2: 14, 22-23; Ps 16: 1-2, 5, 7-11; 1 Pt 1: 17-21; Lk 24: 13-35

“Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us?” Jesus appeared five times to people on the day of His Resurrection. This was most likely the fourth appearance, as these two disciples walked the seven mile distance to Emmaus. The conversation of the men indicates that they were aware of the reports from others that the Lord had risen and had been seen. Yet they seemed to be uncertain. It is difficult to imagine their excitement recognizing Jesus, but an indication of that is the fact that even though they have just made the walk to Emmaus, they turn and go back to Jerusalem, we assume with great haste.

The first reading from Acts shows us a very different Peter than the one we have known. Having received the Holy Spirit and having personally witnessed Christ's Resurrection, Peter is a man on fire with faith. He speaks with confidence and authority, and although the rest of the Apostles are there, he has clearly become the spokesman.

What St. Peter urges us to do is to have that same fire, that same commitment, so that our hearts can be burning within us with the knowledge of our salvation. Peter tells us to “Listen to my words” and “Hear my words.” We could add to that “Understand my words,” as we seek to live out our discipleship, our stewardship as followers of Christ.

ROSARY GUILD—MAY ACTIVITIES

To celebrate May, the month of Mary, Our Lady of Good Counsel's Mary's Rosary Guild will be offering their beautifully handmade rosaries to everyone. They will be found in a basket at the back of the church. Please take one and pray the Rosary.

Mary's Rosary Guild meets the 1st and 3rd Friday of the month at 10 AM in Father Kelly Hall. Please join us anytime. We send rosaries all around the world; to the military, to missions, to Outreach, to hospitals and anywhere they are needed. No supplies are needed to join us, just a joyful heart.

DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON ORDINATIONS

Bishop Robert E. Guglielmone has called Deacon Javier Heredia to the Order of Priest.

The priestly ordination will be held at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Charleston on Friday, May 30 at 6 p.m.

Also, Bishop Guglielmone has called Roger Morgan and Richard Wilson to the Order of Deacon.

The diaconate ordination will be held at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Columbia on Friday, May 16 at 6 p.m.

The Diocese would like all parishioners to know this exciting news, and that all are welcome and encouraged to attend.
