STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Acts 8: 5-8, 14-17; Ps 66: 1-7, 16, 20; 1 Pt 3: 15-18; Jn 14: 15-21

"On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you." (John 14:20) Jesus is speaking to us about the Holy Trinity and our oneness with Him, God the Father, and the Holy Spirit. If we fully accept that this relationship exists, and if we embrace it to lead God-centered lives, we are much closer to the ideal of holiness the Lord wants for each of us.

Stewardship is a God-centered way to live. One of the challenges of our secular society is that the way of life which we may see daily in all aspects of our experience, certainly on television and in motion pictures, is the opposite of stewardship. Rather than being God-centered it is often self-centered.

Through all the readings for this Sixth Sunday of Easter we can sense this call to be one with God. The first reading from Acts reminds each of us that we are filled with the Holy Spirit, just as the Samaritans were. Peter's letter (the second reading) imparts the value of having Christ alive in our hearts. Of course, Jesus Himself, speaking to us through the Gospel of John, assures us that striving to be one with Him means that we have within us an Advocate, the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit. This is the Comforter Who allows us to accomplish much.

NEWS

THANK YOU, FATHER MILES,
CONGRATULATIONS,
GOOD LUCK AND FAREWELL

All of the sentiments are pertinent in this case, and each of us has our own specific and private wishes for you, Father Miles, as you move closer to your ultimate purpose in His Holy Church.

We appreciate your knowledge of and care for the temporal goods of the Church, and are grateful for the renovation of our Rectory. We could always count on you to participate in the Parish and City events with a smile of joy, and a thought toward entertaining us by allowing your hat to be "decorated" at the Easter Promenade or by showing us your lively dance steps at Women's Guild events. You let the residents of the City know that the Catholics are here as you taught us all about the different vestments when you walked from the Rectory to the Church or greeted people before celebrations, even if we never said "biretta" correctly. Most of all, you heightened our awareness of our faith journey with each of your homilies, consecrations and celebrations throughout the liturgical year.

But, Father Miles, the Church is larger than a parish, and we will listen for news of the completion of your doctorate, and then we will listen more, because we will definitely hear of you in future Church news. You have worked hard here; and we hope you enjoy the view as you progress on your journey for our Church.
